Under the Ahirani Language Preservation and Development Program

Lecture

On August 6, 2018, at 8:00 PM, Dr. Ramesh Dhondge, a prominent figure in Ahirani language and author of several books on the subject, guided the faculty of the college on how to preserve and develop Ahirani language. His unique style of speaking highlighted the importance of preserving and developing the language, especially as many traditional words are gradually disappearing in the age of science. He emphasized the need to find appropriate words for these items in today's context, which are not readily available to us. Coordinator appreciated by Prof. Sunil Patil.
