माथेफिरुने केले कपाशीचे नुकसान जितेंद्र धोबी यांना उत्कृष्ट कामगार पुरस्कार

शिरपूर

कैऱ्या लगडलेली कपाशीची झाडे अज्ञात माथेफिरुने उपटून फेकल्याची घटना बोरगाव येथे घडली. संबंधित शेतकऱ्याच्या शेतात सातत्याने असे प्रकार घडवले जात आहेत. त्यामागील सूत्रधाराचा शोध घेऊन कठोर कारवाई करावी अशी मागणी परिसरातून करण्यात आली.

बोरगाव शिवारात अर्जुन चिंधा पाटील यांचे शेत आहे. चंद्र शिरालाल पाटील हे शेती सांभाळतात. मे महिन्याच्या अखेरीस चंद्र पाटील यांनी शेतात कपाशीची लागवड केली. वेळेत मशागत करून खते, औषधे नियमित दिल्याने कपाशीची चांगली वाढ झाली. एका झाल्या ४० ते ५० बोडे लगडली. या परिसरातील सर्वात उतम पीक

असल्याची ज्योती परिसरातील शेतकऱ्यांनी दिली. दोन आठवड्यात बोंड फुटून कापूस बाहेर येईल अशी परिस्थिती होती. बुधवारी सकाळी शेताकडे गेलेल्या चंद्र पाटील यांना धक्काच बसला. त्यांच्या शेतातील दोंडशेहून अधिक कपाशीची झाडे उपटून फेकल्याचे आढळले. विशेष म्हणजे सलग न काढता ठराविक अंतरावरची झाडे

शिरपूर

Key Note Speaker:

Mr. Sanjay Chaudhari
(Expert in Vermiculture farm)
Shirpur, Dhule

Background of the Program:

Date of the event: 11 Jan. 2022
Venue: Bharwade (Shirpur)

Vermiculture is a method of converting all the biodegradable wastes such as farm wastes, kitchen wastes, market wastes, bio-wastes of agro-based industrial wastes, livestock wastes etc. into useful product through the action of earthworms. Through their digestive process, earthworms convert decaying vegetable matter, composted green waste, animal waste and paper into valuable nutritive products for agriculture. The ideal objectives of vermiculture are to upgrade the value of the original waste material, produce upgraded material in situ and to obtain a final product free of chemical and biological pollutants. Earthworms form a major component of the soil system and these organisms have been efficiently ploughing the land for millions of years and assist in the recycling of organic nutrients for the efficient growth of plants. Compost worms are being used for recycling of organic waste and have the potential to be used in vermiculture waste conversion systems for industrial or municipal applications. Although many species of earthworms are suitable for waste processing; two species namely Eisenia fetida and Eudrilus eugeniae have mainly been taken into consideration for vermicomposting. Their growth, productivity and ability to transform organic waste as animal dung, agricultural residues, urban wastes and sludge have been widely reviewed. The process of converting organic waste by earthworm consumption into nutrient-filled humus is called vermicomposting. Worm castings, the scientific name of worm manure are nature's finest soil conditioners that are called as "Gardeners Gold" on account of their excellent soil amending value. In natural system, earthworms along with soil microorganisms degrade organic waste materials of soil and thus maintain nutrient flux. Earthworm cast consists of excreted masses of soil mixed with residues of pulverized and digested plant residues usually called as vermicompost. The vermicompost is a product rich in organic bioremediated matter which differ from the compost obtained from the same matrix for its level of humification and the greater presence of microbial metabolites responsible for the fertilizing value of casts. By maintaining suitable temperatures in even the coldest winter months and creating suitable conditions for earthworms to thrive they can process a large amounts of organic material, consuming, digesting and passing almost any decaying organic matter including food waste, leaves and grass, shredded paper or cardboard waste, and chopped straw or hay.

Highlights of the Programme.

- Number and quality of Earthworms.
- Dwarf parent for commercial Earthworm production.
- Low maintenance requirements.
- Tolerance to high temperature in summer.
- Ability to utilize cheap agricultural byproduct. Suggest Corrections Nutritional Importance.

Key points discussions:

- Basics process of rearing of Earthworm (Vermiculture) for Manure , Vermicompost and Vermiwash has been a staple of food production since the advent of agriculture.
- Earthworms are needed to be maintained in a strictly hygienic manner with proper housing
- It is a beneficial way of improving the fertility of the plant and soil.
- Vermiculture mainly focuses on the breeding of worms so as to increase their population.
- Vermicompost is then prepared to promote the growth and development of crops.

Brief report of the program:

The Zoology department was organized workshop on Entrepreneurship under the guidance of Principal and head of department .This Entrepreneurship has been organized on 11 Jan.2021.

This was very helpful for you to and its significance, thus all opportunities to gain knowledge through practical learning. Vermicompost enhances soil biodiversity by promoting beneficial microbes, enhancing plant growth directly by producing plant growth-regulating hormones and enzymes, and indirectly controlling plant pathogens, nematodes, and other pests. Today Vermiculture industry is the fastest growing sector of India's agriculture. To get the full impact of its rapid escalation, it would be interesting to trace the evolution of Earthworm development in India. Today poultry industry has reached a stage of sophistication. A network of over commercial feed mills, veterinary pharmaceuticals and equipment manufacturers has made Earthworm farming a dynamic agricultural business. These commercial activities have been duly supported by Research and Development back-up from various educational and research institutions.

Glimpses of Workshop:

On 11th January 2022, students from the Department of Zoology participated in a field visit for an Entrepreneurship Workshop on Vermiculture Technology, gaining practical insights into earthworm farming and its potential for sustainable agricultural practices.

On 11th January 2022, students observed Vermiculture Technology and soil management during a field visit, exploring practical aspects of entrepreneurship in sustainable agriculture and soil enrichment

About the College:

The R. C. Patel education trust is a profound educational movement offering secondary and tertiary education since last 25 years to the rural and tribal students of this region. Besides the conventional Arts, Commerce and Science streams, the college also runs several self-finance courses according to student demand. Previously, the college has undertaken two assessment and accreditation cycles of NAAC and accredited with „B“ grade on both the assessments. The majority of the students admitted in this institute come from the rural, economically backward and agriculture background for whom higher education is still out of reach.

About the Seminar

Intellectual Property Rights in the field of Biotechnology and the Life Sciences has been high on the agenda of the policymakers from last decade. Moreover, here has been a wide and ongoing debate on the nature and scope of these rights particularly for plant varieties, GMOs, pharmaceuticals and novel drugs. WIPO has defined these rights as rights accruing from creations of mind. But, the value of Intellectual Property does not lie merely in creation and development rather in its commercialization. Intellectual Property is a powerful commercial asset whose commercialization is yet to be fully developed in India. However, the lack of awareness and the cumbersome process of getting protection to these rights have led to numerous incidents of plagiarism, stealing of traditional knowledge of local communities, amongst others. Large scale schemes and programs spreading awareness among people including communities and students is the need of the hour.

The theme of seminar

- Intellectual Property: Concept
- Intellectual Property Rights: Emerging Issues and challenges
- Evolution of Biotechnology and Patents
- Protection of Traditional Knowledge
- Plant Variety Protection

About the College:

The R. C. Patel education trust is a profound educational movement offering secondary and tertiary education since last 25 years to the rural and tribal students of this region. Besides the conventional Arts, Commerce and Science streams, the college also runs several self-finance courses according to student demand. Previously, the college has undertaken two assessment and accreditation cycles of NAAC and accredited with 'B' grade on both the assessments. The majority of the students admitted in this institute come from the rural, economically backward and agriculture background for whom higher education is still out of reach.

About the Seminar

Intellectual Property Rights in the field of Pure and Applied Science has been high on the agenda of the policymakers from last three decade. Moreover, here has been a wide and ongoing debate on the nature and scope of these rights particularly for Economic issues, trade, business and related issues. WIPO has defined these rights as rights accruing from creations of mind. But, the value of Intellectual Property does not lie merely in creation and development rather in its commercialization. Intellectual Property is a powerful commercial asset whose commercialization is yet to be fully developed in India. However, the lack of awareness and the cumbersome process of getting protection to these rights have led to numerous incidents of plagiarism, stealing of traditional knowledge of local communities, amongst others. Large scale schemes and programs spreading awareness among people including communities and students is the need of the hour.

REPORT ON
ONE-DAY WORKSHOP ON “INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS & RESEARCH METHODOLOGY”

(17th November 2021)

One day Workshop on “INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS & RESEARCH METHODOLOGY” was organized by, Department of Microbiology and Biotechnology, R. C. Patel Arts, Commerce and Science College, Shirpur on 17th November 2021. The Chief patron of the workshop was Prof. Bhushan L. Chaudhari Hon’ble Director KBCNMU Center for Innovation, Incubation, and Linkages. The Convener of the workshop was Dr. D. R. Patil Principal, R. C. Patel A. C. S. College, Shirpur and the Coordinator was Dr. Sandip Patil Associate Professor, Dept. of Microbiology. The workshop was sponsored by RCPACS College.

The opening ceremony of the workshop began with auspicious lamp lighting ceremony seeking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati followed by Saraswati vandana and felicitation of the guest speakers.

The theme of the workshop was elucidated by Dr. Sandip Patil made participants aware about Intellectual property that pertains to any original creation of human intellect such as artistic, literary, technical or scientific creation whereas, Intellectual Property right refers to the legal rights given to the inventor or creator to protect his or her invention or creation for a certain period of time. The core objective of the Workshop was to make the target group capable of handling IP data as IPR promotes entrepreneurship, stimulate innovation and creativity was nicely explained by them.

The affable personality, Principal Dr. D. R. Patil formally welcomed the dignified gathering and his address was quite lucid and relevant to the workshop on IPR.

In the inaugural session, Prof. Bhushan L. Chaudhari Hon’ble Director KBCNMU Center for Innovation, Incubation, and Linkages deliberated on the functions of Biotechnology Incubation Centre, Jalgaon. The Speaker gave us a peep into the workings of the centre focusing on how it provides working space and facilities to the budding entrepreneurs to utilize local Resources by transferring lab technologies to Industries. His guidance to the participants on commencing a startup was quite informative and his fresh perspective on how monetization of innovative ideas can be a life changing experience with illustrations from real life was motivating for all participants.

Later the discourse of Dr. Ketan Narkhede, (Professor and Chairman BoS Microbiology, KBCNMU, Jalgaon) Key note speaker on Intellectual Property and its significance, various aspects of Intellectual property rights and its role in present era was quite intelligible and made the difficult ideas such as patents, patent rights, processing for filing patent and copy rights quite comprehensible to the participants. His elaboration on regulation of IP policy and commercialization of IP, Revenue sharing, Ownership and inventor ship of Patent was quite penetrating. And it was quite disheartening to hear that India stands at 28th place in patent filing and therefore, shows the urgency to conduct such workshops to spread awareness about IPR. He was quite praiseworthy as he dealt with issues such as fundamental aspects of Intellectual Property rights and the Patent regime in India and abroad. He gave a detailed expiations about Patent, Patentee, Patent infringement, Patent in biotechnology and GI tag.

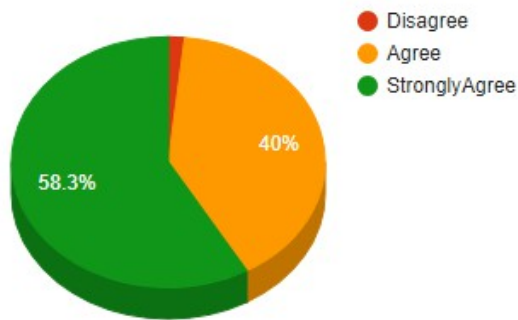

Dr. Sandip Patil, Coordinator, Head Department of Microbiology talk was quite informative as he gave an insight into all aspects of IPR innovation and invention, KIRAN IPR Scheme for Women Scientists by the Department of Science and Technology, Govt. of India.

The demonstration given on concept of IPR and Patent application filing through the participatory session was the acme of the workshop. The hands on training provided basic Patent training comprising in depth the entire Patent system, from its reason for existence to how to create strong Patents as valuable assets of the institution. The session was well structured, conducted eloquently and strengthened the knowledge of the participants on e – filing of patents in India.

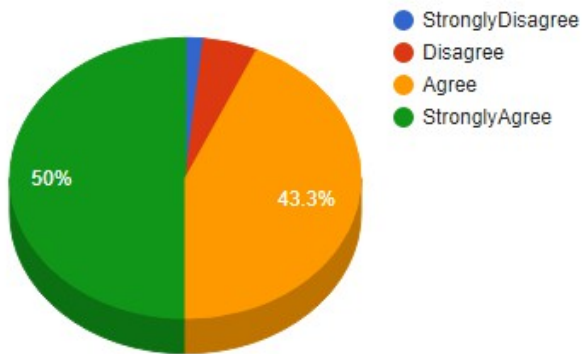

The Feedback Performa's were also distributed among the participants to assess the success of Workshop. The data collected was organized in the Pie chart presented as follows:

Pie Chart: Work shop on IPR

The Workshop Objectives were clearly stated and met

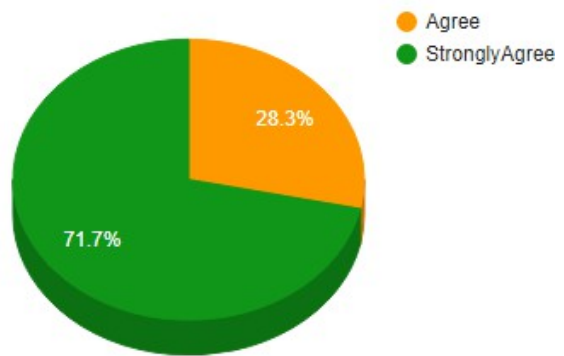

The Workshop was well organized

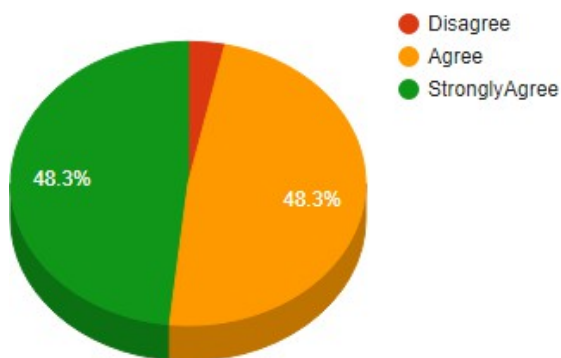

The Workshop helped me to learn how to work effectively with my peers in workshop settings

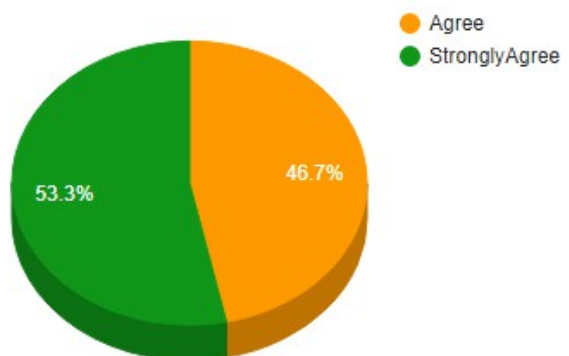

The information and skills presented were relevant and useful

The presenter presented adequate time for questions and answered them satisfactorily

This workshop increased my skills and knowledge about IPR

The convener Dr. D. R. Patil, Principal and the faculty of science deserve kudos for organizing such a technically informative and enlightening workshop that has benefited the participants by the expertise of the speakers who touched all the aspects of INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. The feedback of the workshop was presented by participants Chirag, Aditi of B.Sc. IIIrd year of the College and Trisha of Dept. of Biotechnology, RCPACS followed by feedback from faculty which was presented by Dr. Milind Patel, Dept. of Chemistry.
